

Wöbbelin

Liberated prisoners at the Wöbbelin "reception camp" on 2 May 1945. In the middle is Belgian prisoner Marcel Bouckenooghe, who died as a consequence of his imprisonment in the early morning of 8 May 1945 at Ludwigslust hospital, only five days after having been liberated. Photograph taken by a US military photographer.
(USHMM)