

Construction of the Camp 1940 to 1942

All photographs in this display come from an SS photo album which prisoners Peter Ernst and Heinz Masset took with them from the camp. The stamp was added after 1945. The Neuengamme memorial acquired the photographs in 1981.

(ANg)

Prisoners working on the construction of the SS barracks in 1940. The prisoners' barracks can be seen in the background.

Prisoners working on the construction of the prisoners' barracks on the eastern perimeter of the camp in 1940.

Paving work at the prisoners' barracks in 1941. The parade ground is to the right.

Concrete mixer.